Boxes for the School Play

If anyone has any large boxes they would be willing to donate to school for the Christmas Production, we would be most grateful. Please send them with your child or (if too large) bring them to the school office. Thank you in advance.

Year 6 Young Writers

All of the Year 6 children have had their poetry published as part of the Young Writers competition. They have brought home a letter this week that needs to be authorised online by parents for the company to begin printing the anthology. If you wish for your child to have their work published, please fill in the online form before Friday 11th November.

Clubs starting next week

A reminder that Year 5/6 Lego Club starts with Mrs. Nixon next Monday (7th November) from 3.30 to 4.30pm for 5 weeks.

Sports clubs are as follows:

Monday- Cross -country, Tuesday- Hockey, and Thursday-Netball (only for year 5 & 6)

Christmas Production

Please could you let us know as soon as possible if your child will not be present on Tuesday 13th December as this is the day of the Christmas Play and we will therefore not cast them in a role. Thank you.

Cross Country

Our Year 5 & 6 Cross country team had a very successful afternoon on Thursday at Furness Academy. They represented St. Paul's at the area competition, stretching from Walney to Ulverston. All of our runners completed the EXTREMELY muddy course with ease and good humour, considering the conditions. Every one of our girls and boys finished in the first part of the running pack and Carter and Oscar actually came 4th and 5th overall in the competition! Well done runners! We are very proud of your achievements and the way in which you clapped and cheered all the other runners.
