Flourishing Together, Rooted in Love

Christmas Fayre:

Our annual Christmas Fayre is being held on Monday (1st December) from 3.45pm - 5pm. Entry is £1 per adult (children are free) on the door. There will be lots of stalls, including Year 6 Business Enterprise, our Christmas Cafe, tombola, raffle, bottle and chocolate stalls and food by 'The Old Smithy,' 'Clementine and Willow Kitchen' and 'Milkshake Madness.' If you could bring change on the night we would be most grateful.

Christmas Raffle:

The Christmas Raffle will be drawn at the Christmas Fayre on Monday. If you have any last-minute entries, please get them to Mrs Nixon by Monday morning. Thank you and good luck everyone!

Disco and Movie Nights:

If your child wishes to attend either or both of these events, please return the permission slip and money to school by Monday 1st December. Thank you.

School Play Costumes:

We have purchased new clothing rails and are happy to receive costumes when you are ready.

Please could ALL costumes be in school by Wednesday 3rd December on a labelled hanger. Thank you.

Elf Dash:

This year we are raising money for St Mary's Hospice when we partake in our annual 'Elf Dash' on Thursday 11th December. We have a Just Giving page up and running (the link can be found on our Facebook page) should you wish to donate to this worthy cause. Thank you for donations already received.

Sports Teams:

Good luck to our Year 6 Sportshall Athletics Team who are competing in a local tournament on Monday afternoon, and to our Kurling Team who are participating in a local festival on Tuesday. These will be the last 2 competitive sporting events of the year.

Sports Clubs:

Next week will be the last sports clubs of the term. Basketball Club will finish Tuesday 2nd December and Athletics Club will finish on Thursday 4th December. We will inform you of new clubs starting in the new Year.

Light up a Light Service:

The choir will be performing at the 'Light up a Life Service' at St-Paul's Church on Thursday night at 6pm. If your child attends choir they will have been given more information. Everyone is welcome to attend this lovely evening service.
